ABOUT THE COVER

The faces on the cover are a few of the vibrant seniors who participated in drop-in photo sessions at Sage in August 2024 creating an authentic reflection of our local senior population.

Thank you to all participants for sharing your light, and a special thank you to Allan Stewart who volunteered as “senior” photographer.

SPONSOR SHOUT OUT

Community investment is required for production and distribution of this free community resource. A special thank you to sponsors of this edition:

FEEDBACK

Let us know how the Directory helps and what could make it more useful. You can email directory@mysage.ca, leave a voice-mail at 780.423.5510 or scan the QR code for a short online survey.

MESSAGE FROM SAGE

At Sage, we know that navigating seniors' services and housing can be frustrating and sometimes even confusing - particularly when new needs emerge, and you are doing it for the first time! That's why Sage produces the Directory - to help.

Our team works with hundreds of stakeholders to put the Directory together, carefully updating and confirming information so that community members have a reliable resource to use throughout the year. Printed resources are increasingly unavailable, and we know how valuable it is to have a paper copy of seniors' housing and services, helpful checklists, and useful information at your fingertips.

Producing this Directory is an enormous task, and we are proud to know that it is a lifeline people refer to repeatedly as their needs change.

We thank everyone who collaborated with us to bring this edition of the Directory to you. From the seniors who have volunteered to give feedback, edit content, and model for our cover, to the advertisers who pay to have their message included, and the seniors centres, libraries, healthcare providers, and dozens of other organizations throughout the Greater Edmonton region who help us distribute 45,000 copies of the Directory for free.

We rely on advertising, donations, and contributions from community to make this Directory available, and we would like to thank all supporters who have contributed, and invite others to consider supporting this work as well.

The Sage Team

The Directory of Senior Services is published by Sage Seniors Association, a not-for-profit organization in Edmonton, AB (www.mysage.ca). Information is compiled by Sage staff in collaboration with the organizations listed. For information, contact directory@mysage.ca.

SAGE SENIORS ASSOCIATION

THE CANADA PENSION PLAN (CPP)

www.canada.ca/en/services/benefits/publicpensions/cpp

- CPP provides contributors and their families with partial replacement of earnings in the case of retirement, disability, or death. It is a monthly payment for someone at least 60 years old who has worked and made valid contributions to the CPP.
- The pension amount depends on how much and for how long you have contributed to the CPP and at what age you want your pension to start. The standard age to start the pension is 65. However, you can start receiving it as early as age 60 or as late as age 70. If you start receiving your pension earlier, the monthly amount you'll receive will be smaller.

HOW TO APPLY

Apply online through My Service Canada Account (MSCA). If you do not already have a MSCA, you will need to request a personal access code (PAC). A PAC is your key to accessing Service Canada's secure online services.

-or-

Complete, sign, and mail the Application for Canada Pension Plan Retirement Pension (ISP1000) to Service Canada.

OLD AGE SECURITY (OAS)

www.canada.ca/en/services/benefits/publicpensions/cpp/old-age-security

- The OAS pension is a monthly payment available to seniors aged 65 and older who meet the Canadian legal status and lived in Canada for a minimum of 10 years.

OAS ALLOWANCE is a monthly payment for someone aged 60 to 64 whose spouse or common-law partner is receiving the OAS pension and is eligible for the Guaranteed Income Supplement.

OAS Allowance for the Survivor is for someone aged 60 to 64 whose spouse or common-law partner has died, who has not remarried or entered into a new common-law relationship, and whose annual income is below the eligible threshold.

THE GUARANTEED INCOME SUPPLEMENT (GIS)

www.canada.ca/en/services/benefits/publicpensions/cpp/old-age-security/guaranteed-income-supplement

- GIS provides a monthly non-taxable benefit to OAS pension recipients whose annual income (or in the case of a couple, a combined income) from the previous year is below the eligible threshold and are living in Canada.

CPP DISABILITY BENEFIT

A monthly payment for someone under the age of 65 who has worked and contributed to the CPP and whose disability is severe and prolonged and prevents them from working at any job on a regular basis. Dependent children may be eligible for CPP Children's Benefit.

CHANGES IN PERSONAL SITUATION

Changes in someone's personal situation may affect your benefits. Service Canada must be notified when any of the following events occurs:

- A couple can no longer live together for reasons beyond their control (e.g., if one of them is in the hospital or living in a Long-Term Care facility), they may be entitled to a higher payment.
- Change in marriage or common-law relationship status.
- Change of address; or any absence from Canada over six months.

DEATH

Service Canada must be notified as soon as possible when someone receiving CPP and/or OAS benefits dies. The month in which someone dies is their last month to receive benefits. Any benefits received after that month must be repaid.

SURVIVOR BENEFITS

www.canada.ca/en/services/benefits/publicpensions/cpp/cpp-survivor-pension

- Death Benefit is a one-time payment, payable to the estate or other eligible individuals, on behalf of a deceased CPP contributor.
- Survivor's Pension is paid to the person who, at the time of death, is the legal spouse or common-law partner of the deceased contributor (if eligible). Apply as soon as possible after the contributor's death. If you delay, you may lose benefits.
- CPP Child Allowance for dependent children of a deceased CPP contributor.

PENSIONS FROM OTHER COUNTRIES

- If you lived or worked in another country, you may be eligible for social security benefits, either from that country or from Canada. Contact Service Canada for more information.

WHAT TO DO WHEN A SENIOR DIES

When someone dies there are numerous agencies, businesses, and government departments you may need to inform.

WHAT TO DO FIRST

- Provide the CRA (Canada Revenue Agency) with the date of death as soon as possible: Call: 1.800.959.8281. See Guide RC4111 “What to Do Following a Death” at www.cra.gc.ca.
- Notify Service Canada: 1.800.277.9914. Social Insurance Number is required to cancel Old Age Security, Canada Pension Plan, and Guaranteed Income Supplement.
- Access the deceased person’s tax records as needed after the CRA processes that you are the legal representative (use the Represent a Client online sign-in service).
- Pay any tax installments due before the date of death. To appoint an authorized representative to manage tax matters on your behalf complete Form T1013 see How to give authorization on CRA website. Note: any fees paid to you as an Executor, may must be reported on a T4.
- Notify Seniors Financial Assistance Program (low-income individuals over 65), by calling: 1.877.644.9992 with deceased’s personal health number.
- Notify Alberta Seniors Benefit: Toll-free 1.877.644.9992. Give name, date of death, and Personal Health Number of deceased.
- See Service Canada if you are eligible to apply for any Survivor Benefits.
- Stop or transfer payments (GST/Canada Cardon Rebate) to a survivor if applicable

COMMON QUESTIONS

How do I know if I am the legal representative?

- You are named as executor in the will
- You are appointed as the administrator of the estate by a court
- You were an authorized representative for tax matters while the person was alive

What if I am unable to obtain documents that establish me as the legal representative?

- Complete Form RC552, available at canada.ca/cra-forms or call 1.800.387.1193

What form of “death certificate” do I need, and how do I obtain one?

- A death certificate cannot be issued until the death is registered, which is usually completed at the funeral home as funeral arrangements are being made.
- A Funeral Director’s Death Certificate (5-10 copies) should be sufficient for most cases (vehicle registry, banks, etc.).
- If the Funeral Director’s document is not sufficient (settling investments, canceling a health card, etc.) A certificate can be ordered from a private registry agent.

WHAT TO DO WHEN A SENIOR DIES

If the deceased's name is on the title of a property or home:

- Contact Land Titles at 780.427.2742

If the deceased dies without a will:

- Contact the Public Trustee at 780.427.2744.

Finances and Insurance

- Notify the bank's estate department and either close or update accounts. The bank will require a copy of the will and death certificate.
- Cancel and destroy credit cards and empty safety deposit boxes.

When should I consider hiring a lawyer?

- There are numerous assets, accounts, and beneficiaries.
- There is a possibility the will is going to be contested.

Vehicle, Utilities & Insurance

- Notify phone, internet, cable companies.
- Notify gas & electricity companies.
- Notify home, vehicle and life insurance companies.

If you are not able to identify the source life insurance company or cannot find the policy of the deceased, the OmbudService for Life & Health Insurance, Toll Free: 1.888.295.8112 may be able to assist.

If a vehicle is registered in the name of the deceased:

- To change the vehicle registration, contact a registry and share either the will of the deceased person, or if there is no will, a grant of administration from the court
- Remove the deceased's name from car insurance.
- Parking placards may be cancelled at any Registries office.

Social Media and Internet Accounts

- Closing email accounts may prevent identity theft.
- For social media accounts, consider three basic options:
 - Delete all accounts (activity and photos will be lost)
 - Keep accounts up but not active
 - Memorialize the accounts

If the deceased was a veteran receiving benefits or support services, contact:

Veterans Affairs Canada: 1.866.522.2122 (English) / 1.866.522.2022 (Francois)

• Some veterans may be eligible for assistance for funeral costs, contact The Last Post Fund: Toll free 1.800.465.7133 Email: info@lastpost.ca www.lastpostfund.ca

PERSONAL AND FINANCIAL DECISION MAKING OPTIONS

See also: Estate Planning and Legal Resources

There are a number of options available when a person does not, or can not, handle their financial and personal affairs. Visit www.alberta.ca/opgt-supports for information and support.

ENDURING POWER OF ATTORNEY:

A legal document used to appoint someone to make financial and legal decisions on your behalf.

- A power of attorney is “enduring” if it states its power continues after mental incapacity or it can be written to only take effect when mental capacity is lost.
- If you prepare this document, there is no need for your family to apply to be your trustee in the event you lose capacity.
- It is best if this document is prepared by a lawyer.

PERSONAL DIRECTIVE:

A document used to appoint someone else to make personal decisions on your behalf when you are unable to make your own decisions due to illness or accident.

- Decision making may include medical treatment, accommodation, and other personal care problems.
- This legal document ends on the death of the represented individual; it is typically signed at the same time as the Enduring Power of Attorney.

GUARDIANSHIP:

A guardian is appointed by the court to act on behalf of a person who is no longer mentally capable.

- Guardians may make decisions such as where to live, health care, etc.
- For assistance with application contact Office of the Public Guardian and Trustee call 780-427-0017.

TRUSTEESHIP:

A trustee is appointed by the court to handle the financial matters of a senior.

- Generally the person acting as a trustee will also act as a guardian to ensure that both financial and personal matters are handled.
- For assistance with application contact Office of the Public Guardian and Trustee call 780-427-2744.
- An “Informal Trusteeship” is a no-cost way for someone – an informal trustee – to help adults who receive government payments and have difficulties managing their money and remembering to pay their bills.

ALTERNATE PERSONAL DECISION-MAKING OPTIONS:

There are additional levels of personal decision-making support available to help an adult remain as independent as possible including: supported decision-making, specific decision-making, co-decision-making. For more information, visit www.alberta.ca/making-personal-decisions-for-incapable-adults.

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS & RESPONSE

BE PREPARED FOR EMERGENCY EVENTS

If an emergency happens in your community, it may take emergency workers some time to reach you. Be prepared to take care of yourself, family and pets for up to 72 Hours. Emergency events such as extreme weather, wildfire smoke and air quality hazards, and public health crises could lead to evacuation or shelter in place responses. Should any such event occur, stay informed with updates from Alberta's Emergency Alert system and from emergency authorities releasing information on local television and radio stations and through the City of Edmonton's social media.

Ways to prepare ahead:

- Create and share Emergency Contact Lists
- Prepare Emergency Kits
- Check your Insurance
- Sign up to receive Alberta Emergency Alerts to stay informed of potential risks to your health, safety or community

See www.alberta.ca/emergency-preparedness for helpful information and resources.

ELDER ABUSE

Elder abuse is defined as any action or inaction by a person(s) in a trusting relationship that jeopardizes the health or well-being of an older adult. It includes denial of an older adult's fundamental rights, and neglect (active or passive) by a caregiver. It can take many forms including: financial, physical, emotional, sexual, spiritual abuse or neglect.

An abuser can be anyone. Most often the abuser is a family member or partner but may also be friends or caregivers. They are most often close enough to have influence or control over the victim. Abuse includes using name calling, threats, yelling, put-downs, or physical intimidation to control the senior's actions or decisions. It also includes taking money or possessions without permission, and using coercion to have a senior sign documents. In many cases, older adults feel they have to give in or agree to something in order to avoid escalation or to ensure their safety.

Sometimes abuse can unintentionally occur due to caregiver stress. With additional supports for the older adult and the caregiver, some of this stress can be relieved.

Victims include both males and females from every income level and culture, as well as people in both good and poor health.

SIGNS OF ABUSE

Older adults being abused may become withdrawn, depressed, and isolated. They may have financial difficulty, unexplained injuries, anxiety, or difficulty sleeping. They may have changes in hygiene, nutrition, or medication or experience diminishing self-esteem.

SOME EFFECTS OF ABUSE

Abused or neglected older adults have a 200% increased risk of early death. The stress of living in an abusive situation shortens an older person's life and can significantly increase the person's chances of becoming ill or may make other health problems worse.

OVERLOOKING WARNING SIGNS

Sometimes signs of abuse are mistaken as a part of growing older or may look like other health conditions. For example: mental confusion, depression, or anxiety resulting from abuse or neglect may look like dementia. People may not realize that sometimes older adults are experiencing frequent falls or have long-term pain because they are being abused or neglected. Ageism can also play a factor in why these warning signs are overlooked. Ageism is a social attitude and a way of looking at older people that stereotypes them. For example, often in situations of abuse, older people aren't taken seriously because they are viewed as being forgetful and seen as complainers.

#ELDERABUSEHAPPENS

It's not always easy to spot the impact of elder abuse. Nearly one in 10 Alberta seniors is the victim of physical, mental or sexual abuse, financial exploitation or neglect. Make sure you know the signs and how to stop it.

WILLS AND ESTATES

ESTATE:

- Is all the property and money owned by an individual when they die.

WILL:

- Is a legal document prepared by a person prior to their death that outlines how their Estate will be given out after their death.
- It is always wise to have a lawyer prepare a will to avoid legal problems.

INTESTATE:

- A term used for a person who dies without a valid will.
- Contact a lawyer or Public Trustee for instructions on how to handle this situation.

HOLOGRAPH WILL:

- Holograph wills are legal in Alberta but not in all provinces or territories in Canada.
- Holograph wills must be written in the Testator's own handwriting and must be signed by the Testator and are not witnessed.
- These types of wills can be prepared in an emergency, but it is important that they clearly state what your intentions are.

EXECUTOR:

- Is the person or persons named in a will to deal with any financial matters related to the person who has died and to distribute the estate.

BENEFICIARY:

- Is the person or organization named in a will who will receive the assets of the estate.
- The executor and the beneficiary may be the same person.

PROBATE:

- Probate is a legal process that takes place after someone's death. It involves proving that the deceased's will is valid and dividing the property as instructed by the will.
- By planning ahead, it may be possible to avoid probate.
- Property that is held jointly with a spouse or other person does not need to be probated.
- Before any transfer of assets, it is a good idea to get legal advice.
- There may be costs and tax to pay.
- Probate may not be necessary if the estate is small.
- Probate is required when a house or investment is in the deceased's name only.
- A will needs to be probated if any individual such as a financial institution or the land titles office asks for it to be probated.
- Applications for probate are usually made by a lawyer however a lawyer is not required.

For more information visit: www.alberta.ca/surrogate-forms-non-contentious-matters

- You can also order A User's Guide for Grant Applications from the King's Printer by calling 780.427.4952 ($49.95 available in paper and as a pdf).
- Court and Justice Services 1.855.738.4747 can offer assistance with forms.

JOINT LAND TITLES:

- It is a good idea to have both husband and wife listed on a land title to eliminate the need of probate.

- Lawyers DO NOT recommend that children or grandchildren be put on a land title.
- By adding another person to a land title, that person receives an equal share in the property and the property cannot be sold without that individual's permission.

WHAT HAPPENS IF YOU DIE WITHOUT A WILL?

- The Wills and Succession Act sets out how and to whom property is transferred when a person dies. Information about this act is available by visiting www.alberta.ca/wills-in-alberta

PLANNED GIVING

Every day, lives are enriched by the work of registered charities, foundations, and other not-for-profit organizations in our communities. Financial assistance is essential to support and sustain their charitable work. By leaving a gift in your will or estate plan to the charitable group(s) of your choice, you can have a positive impact on a cause that matters to you.

A financial gift can also be a very practical addition to a financial or estate plan when tax issues are taken into consideration. In most cases, the tax burden left to relatives is lifted significantly. Your financial advisor can provide guidance on how giving may actually benefit your family after you're gone.

Things You Can Do Today to Leave a Legacy:

- Prepare a will
- Choose your charity
- Name an alternate beneficiary
- Consider memorial gifts
- Ask your legal or financial advisor for advice

PROVINCIAL BENEFITS & PROGRAMS

The primary source of income for seniors (65 years of age or older) is provided by the Government of Canada through the Guaranteed Income Supplement and Old Age Security. To supplement these programs the Government of Alberta provides a number of supports and services.

COVERAGE FOR SENIORS provides premium-free coverage for medical needs, such as prescriptions drugs, diabetes supplies, ambulance services, home nursing care, chiropractic services and clinical psychological services. This program is administered by Alberta Blue Cross.

See: Health Insurance Coverage (page 55)

You should receive a Seniors Financial Assistance application package in the mail six months before your 65th birthday. If you do not, apply online at www.alberta.ca/seniors-financial-assistance, or call the Alberta Supports Contact Centre 1.877.644.9992. One application will help you access the following programs:

Alberta Seniors Benefit provides a monthly benefit to eligible seniors with low-income to assist with living expenses.

Special Needs Assistance for Seniors provides financial assistance to eligible seniors with low-income toward the cost of some appliances, and specific health and personal supports.

Dental and Optical Assistance for Seniors provides financial assistance to eligible seniors with low- to moderate- income for basic dental and optical services.

Supplementary Accommodation Benefit supports eligible seniors who reside in a continuing care home with monthly accommodation charges.

You can also apply for these home-equity loan programs for senior homeowners:

Seniors Property Tax Deferral Program allows eligible senior homeowners to defer all or part of their annual residential property taxes through a low-interest home equity loan.

Seniors Home Adaptation and Repair Program helps eligible seniors finance home repairs, adaptations and renovations through a low-interest home equity loan.

HOME CARE

Alberta Health Services

Phone: 780.496.1300

Email: continuingcare@

albertahealthservices.ca

www.albertahealthservices.ca

- Home Care is publicly funded personal and healthcare services for clients of all ages living in a private residence or other setting, such as suites in a retirement residence.
- Home Care provides help with activities of daily living that the client cannot do themselves or cannot get help with from another source; these are often activities that are considered necessary for the client to safely maintain their independence, like personal hygiene or medication management.
- Home Care supplements care and supports provided by families and community services.
- An assessment by an AHS Case Manager is required to determine eligibility for Home Care services. Assessments may be coordinated by contacting Continuing Care Access at 780-496-1300.

- Home Care does not provide all services a client may need but can help arrange supports provided in your community.

CHOICE PROGRAM

Comprehensive Home Option for Integrated Care of the Elderly

Alberta Health Services

Phone: 780.496.1300

www.albertahealthservices.ca

The CHOICE program provides services for older adults who have complex health issues and want to remain living in their own homes. The goal of the program is to keep clients healthy, at home, and out of the hospital system.

Services may include:

- Medical monitoring and treatment by CHOICE physicians and nurses
- Medications dispensed by the CHOICE pharmacy
- Physical and occupational therapy
- Social Work (and Pastoral Care Services at a Good Samaritan location)
- Recreation and social activities
- Personal assistance with daily tasks, as needed
- Health and wellness education

This service offers several streams at different locations, including streams focused on: Mental Health, Later-stage dementia, Restorative care.

Once referred, you will be contacted by an AHS health professional to ask about your goals, determine with you which stream will best meet your needs, and coordinate your first day at the program.

Note: Private-pay home care options also exist however, the client then assumes full responsibility for costs associated with such care service.

DAY PROGRAMS

Adult Day Programs are designed for adults over the age of 18 who may have physical and/or memory challenges or are living with a chronic illness. They play a key role in allowing people to remain living in the community as long as possible by optimizing their level of physical, spiritual, social, and emotional function. Adult Day Programs also provide respite and education for caregivers. For further information or to make a referral: Phone: 780.496.1300
www.albertahealthservices.ca

NOTE: Many organizations such as Elder Care provide Day Programs in locations around the city. Access to these programs requires an assessment by an Alberta Health Services Case Manager.

MEDICAL EQUIPMENT AND MOBILITY AIDS

ALBERTA AIDS TO DAILY LIVING (AADL)

ATB Place North 10025 Jasper Ave. T5J 1S6

Phone: 780.427.0731

Toll free: 310-0000 before the phone number

- The AADL program helps Albertans with long-term disabilities, chronic illness or terminal illness by providing funding for basic medical equipment and supplies so clients can live independently at home and within their communities.
- To obtain AADL funding, you must first be clinically assessed by an approved health care professional. That person determines what equipment and supplies you can get through the AADL program. If you are eligible, they will give you an authorization for products from AADL's product list.
- AADL is a cost-share program. Clients pay 25% of the benefit cost to a maximum of $500 per year. If you receive provincial income assistance or if your income is below qualifying thresholds, you may be exempt from cost-share payments.

LEGAL RESOURCES & SERVICES

WHEN TO CONSULT A LAWYER

Lawyers serve a wide range of a client's needs. You should consult a lawyer:

- To purchase a home or a business
- To draft a will, personal directive, or power of attorney
- When Incorporating or forming a partnership contract
- If you are being sued by someone
- If you are charged with a criminal offence.
- A lawyer's principal responsibility is to ensure that each client obtains the benefit of their legal rights and is aware of their legal obligations. Lawyers have a fiduciary duty to act in the best interest of their clients. In approaching this duty, lawyers have three fundamental obligations:
- Serve clients competently
- Be loyal to clients
- Keep client communications confidential.

Lawyers can also assist with planning estates, administering wills, mediating disputes, writing letters and opinions, taking steps to avoid litigation, and negotiating settlements.

PERIPHERAL NEUROPATHY BREAKTHROUGH!

Dr. Melanie Morrill Ac. stops numbness, tingling and burning in the hands and feet.

"My experience with Dr. Melanie and the staff at Accessible Acupuncture, has been extremely positive, I have found relief... and have over come most of my symptoms of the neuropathy in my feet. It has been well worth the time spent trying to feel well and being able to stay active. To anyone reading this, it can not hurt to try, there is nothing worse than painful feet and trying to live your life."

SAFETY AND SECURITY

If you're an older adult living alone or you care for an older person, here are some safety tips for you [Adapted from Safety Tips for Older Adults, Edmonton Neighbourhood Watch] and resources.

Keep emergency numbers by each phone.

Write this information large enough to be read easily even if in a hurry or frightened. Make sure to include the following:

- 9-1-1
- Poison Control: 1-800-332-1414
- Emergency contact(s)
- Healthcare provider's office

See page 8 for other important numbers

Prevent falls.

Falls are the leading cause of injury among Alberta seniors.

- If you have difficulty with walking or balance, talk to a healthcare provider about having a special falls risk assessment.
- Consider an alarm that can be worn as a bracelet or necklace, or a wearable button that you can press to call 911 and/or alert family members or neighbours.
- Do not rush to answer the phone.
- Wear non-slip footwear on smooth floors.
- If you have a cane or walker, use it at all times instead of holding onto walls and furniture.
- Have your vision checked regularly.
- Never place scatter rugs at the top or bottom of the stairs and tape all area rugs to the floor.
- Store frequently used items on lower shelves to limit use of stools or stepladders. If you must use a step stool, use one with a bar to hold onto.
- Make sure all paths are well lit and clear of objects and install nightlights in areas you frequently go to at night.

FALL PREVENTION RESOURCES

FINDING BALANCE INJURY PREVENTION CENTRE

Phone: 780.492.6019

Email: info@findingbalancealberta.ca

www.findingbalancealberta.ca

- Working with seniors' groups, health care organizations, and practitioners across Alberta, the Finding Balance fall prevention program provides information and resources to help seniors reduce their risk of falling, stay in their own home, and take action to live well and enjoy their daily activities.
- Resources are free and can be ordered or downloaded from the website.

Avoid bathroom hazards

- Set the thermostat on the water heater to no higher than 120F to prevent scalding (48.8C).
- Have grab bars installed in the shower and near the toilet to make getting around easier and safer.
- Put non-slip mats or decals in the bathtub to prevent slipping.
- If you have a hard time getting in and out of your tub (or on and off the toilet), ask your provider to help you get a special tub chair/bench, or a raised toilet seat.

See page 58 for Mobility Aid services

Protect against fire and related damages.

- If there is a fire in your home, do not try to put it out. Leave the house and call the fire department or 9-1-1.
- Know at least two ways to get out of your home.
- When cooking, do not wear loose fitting clothes or clothing with long sleeves.
- Replace appliances that have damaged electrical cords.
- Do not put too many electrical cords into one socket or extension cord.

- Install a smoke detector and replace the battery twice a year.
- Never smoke in bed or leave candles burning in an empty room or unoccupied space.
- Turn off space heaters when you leave the room.

Prevent Poisoning

Carbon monoxide

- Never try to heat your home using your stove, oven, or grill: they can give off carbon monoxide, a deadly gas that you cannot see or smell
- Install a carbon monoxide detector near all bedrooms
- Test and replace the carbon monoxide detector battery twice a year

Medications

- Store all medications in their original containers so they do not get mixed up. If you must transfer medication to a new container, clearly label it with the medication name, dose, and expiration date.
- Ask pharmacists to write large print labels on medications to make them easier to read.
- Take medications in a well-lit room so the labels can be seen and read.
- Bring all pill bottles with you to your healthcare provider's appointments so they can make sure they are being taken correctly.

Cleaning products

- Never mix bleach, ammonia, or other cleaning liquids together when you are cleaning. When mixed, cleaning liquids can create deadly gases.

POISON PREVENTION RESOURCES

DEPRESCRIBING.ORG

Email: deprescribing@deprescribing.org

www.deprescribing.org

- A website with Information and resources to help you learn how to discuss your medications with your healthcare providers.

POISON AND DRUG INFORMATION SERVICE (PADIS)

Phone: 1.800-332.1414

- Offers poison information, consultation and referral for anyone who may need advice after being exposed to poisons, chemicals or toxins.

Protect against abuse or other types of crime.

- Keep windows and doors locked.
- Never let a stranger into your home when you are there alone.
- Do not share personal information, such as social security number, credit card or bank information, or account passwords, with people you do not know who contact you.
- Always ask for written information about offers, prizes, or charities and wait to respond until you have reviewed the information thoroughly.
- Do not let yourself be pressured into making purchases, signing contracts, or making donations; it is never rude to wait and discuss the plans with a family member or friend.

When you support Sage, you support seniors.

“I got all the help I needed to get the help I need.”

Your donation to Sage builds resilience with and for seniors.

CYBER SECURITY TIPS & COMMON FRAUD SCAMS

Every year Canadians lose millions of dollars to fraud. Anyone can be a victim, but seniors are a favourite target of criminals. These criminals use email, online, the phone, surface mail, or even in-person contact. As technology becomes more sophisticated so do their techniques. It's important to know how to protect yourself from fraudsters and scammers.

The Little Black Book of Scams is a fraud protection guide provided by the Competition Bureau. It is available online in eight different languages and is a downloadable pdf.

TIPS ON HOW TO AVOID GETTING SCAMMED

1. Protect Your Identity

- Only give out your personal details and information where it is absolutely necessary, and when you trust the person you are speaking to. Do not give personal info of any kind over the phone.

- Guard your mail. Promptly remove mail from your mailbox after delivery. Ensure mail is re-routed if you move or change your mailing address.
- Destroy/shred personal information, don't just throw it out.

2. Money Matters

- Never send money to anyone you don't know.
- Never pay anybody with gifts cards, money wire services, or bitcoin. No legitimate organization will ask for these forms of payment.
- Do not send any money or pay any fee to claim a prize or lottery winnings.

3. Telephone

- Never give out your personal, credit card, or online account details over the phone unless you made the call, or you are certain that the phone number came from a trusted source.
- You can't always trust the number on the phone screen. It's easy for fraudsters to pretend to be a legitimate business on the phone by "spoofing" a call that falsifies their ID and number on screen. If you're uncertain, hang up, look up the phone number, and then call back.

4. Email

- Never reply to spam or unsolicited email. Never click on any links. Delete any suspicious or unsolicited emails without opening them.
- Never give your personal, credit card, or online banking details through an email.
- Legitimate banks and financial institutions will never ask you for your account details in an email or ask you to click on a link in an email to access your account.

5. Internet

- Set up two-factor verification on your financial and online accounts. That's a security process in which users provide two different ways to verify themselves.
- Use passwords on your credit card, bank, and phone accounts. Avoid using easily available information such as your mother's maiden name, your birth date, or your phone number.
- Install software that protects your computer from viruses and unwanted programs and make sure it is kept current. If you don't know how, seek the help of a computer professional.
- Never enter your personal, credit card, or online account information on a website that you are not sure is genuine.

6. In-Person

- Limit the amount of ID cards that you carry. Don't carry your SIN card; leave it in a secure place.
- If someone comes to your door, ask to see their ID. You do not have to let them in, and they must leave if you ask them to.

TYPES OF SCAMS

Scammers often stick to the same tricks because they work. To keep yourself safe, it's important to know the most common types of fraud out there. Most scams come with telltale signs. Stay alert to these signs, and you'll be less likely to fall for a scam.

Emergency/Grandparent Scam

A grandparent receives a phone call from a con artist pretending to be a grandchild. They say they've been in a car accident or are in trouble with the law and need money immediately. Wanting to help, the victim sends the money as instructed. Variations on this scam exist but predominantly it is directed toward the grandparents.

False Charities

Fraudsters call, pretending to be a legitimate charity. Signs of a bogus charity include pressuring you to contribute immediately, thanking you for a pledge you didn't make, or has a copycat or misleading name. If you think the call is a scam you can hang up, or ask for their charitable tax number, then call the CRA at 1.800.267.2384 and confirm the numbers.

Inheritance Scheme (Foreign Money Offer)

This is a solicitation usually requesting assistance in the transfer of a large sum of money from a foreign country. The solicitation may come from a lawyer or some legal entity advising the victim of an inheritance of a sum of money. The victim is asked to pay one or more advance fees before the money can be released. The money or inheritance is fictitious, and the victim never receives the money promised.

Lotteries, Sweepstakes, and Contests

These scams target people by phone, email, or social media. They claim that you've won a large lottery or sweepstakes and are required to pay a small advance fee - through a money service or by loading funds to prepaid credit cards - to cover taxes or fees associated with the win. Never pay fees upfront. These are scams! You cannot win money or a prize in a lottery unless you have entered it yourself, or someone else has entered it on your behalf. You cannot be chosen as a random winner if you did not submit an entry.

Phishing Scams

These are deceptive, unsolicited emails, claiming to be from a legitimate organization such as a bank, business, charity, or government agency. Phishing scams are designed to get victims to click on links or attachments that result in the installation of malicious software.

These emails often contain spelling and formatting errors. Also check the embedded hyperlink in the suspicious email by hovering your mouse over it to verify the address. NEVER click on any attachments - they can contain viruses and spyware. It's best to delete unsolicited emails before opening them.

Romance Scam

This is the most common scam, resulting in the highest financial loss. Scammers target people by befriending them on Facebook or dating sites. The scammers are not who they say they are. They are usually fraudsters based in Nigeria. They use photos of attractive people stolen from the internet, and the men often claim to be military members working overseas. Once the scammer has gained the victim's affection and trust, they ask for and receive money, and often gain access to the victim's bank account and credit cards.

Tax scams

Fraudsters call, impersonating the Canada Revenue Agency, claiming that the victim owes back taxes. They say that repayment is required immediately, threaten the victim with jail time and/or deportation, and demand payment in money transfers, gift cards, or bitcoin.

Always contact the CRA 1-800-959- 8281 to confirm whether you owe back taxes or are entitled to a refund. The CRA will never request payment by money wire services, iTunes gift cards, or bitcoin.

Phishing Scams

WHAT TO DO IF YOU GET SCAMMED

- Don't be embarrassed. Report it, starting with your local police. Reporting it can help protect other victims. You should also warn your friends and family.
- If you think someone has gained access to your online account, telephone banking account, or credit card details, call your financial institution immediately so they can suspend your account and limit the amount of money you lose. Credit card companies may also be able to reverse the transaction if they believe that your credit card was billed fraudulently.

WHERE TO REPORT A SCAM:

- If you are a victim of a scam, call your local police.
Edmonton City Police Phone:
780.423.4567
- If you require support, please contact Crime and Trauma-Informed Support Services at 780.421.2217 or via email
- If you've received a scam phone call, email, or text, report them to:

The Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre

Phone: 1.888.495.8501

www.antifraudcentre.ca

- If you sent money to someone that you think may be a scammer, immediately contact the financial institution where the money was sent. If your bank has not already processed the transfer or cheque, they may be able to cancel it. If you sent money through a wire service (such as Western Union), they may be able to stop the transfer, if you contact them immediately.
- If the fraud took place online through Facebook, eBay, or a dating website, report the incident directly to the website - look under "report abuse" or "report an ad."

- Victims of identity fraud should place flags on all their accounts and report to both credit bureaus, Equifax Canada Toll-free: 1.800.465.7166 and TransUnion Canada Toll-free: 1.877.525.3823.

SENIOR FARES* (65 years and older):

- ETS uses Arc, a regional, account-based, electronic fare payment system.
- Arc has fare caps (limits) to ensure that riders get the fares they are eligible for.

- With Arc, riders pay per ride (90 minutes with transfers). When a rider reaches a daily, monthly or annual fare cap for their fare category, they ride free for the rest of that day, month or year.
- Only fares paid on ETS bus, LRT and DATS services contribute to a rider's ETS fare caps.

To get the senior fare cap with Arc, seniors must use Arc card and have an Arc account with the senior fare profile.

- ETS Senior monthly fare cap: $35 in a calendar month
- ETS Senior annual fare cap: $385 in a calendar year (Jan - Dec)
- ETS Daily fare cap (All riders): $10.25 per day

For information or questions about Arc card or account:

- Please note that individuals who have sensory impairments, such as deafness and blindness, are not eligible for a parking placard.

TRAVEL

TRAVEL INSURANCE

Consider whether purchasing travel insurance is right for your trip.

Types of Travel Insurance Coverage

- Medical travel insurance can help provide coverage to limit out-of-pocket costs if you become injured or sick.
- Evacuation: can help cover the cost of getting out of harm's way if you're abroad and faced with a natural disaster or political unrest or other threat.
- Cancellation travel insurance covers cancellations due to illness and injury, and other problems such as if your tour provider goes bankrupt or an airline delay causes you to miss your event.

- Baggage insurance will provide some reimbursement for lost, damaged or stolen luggage.
- Death and dismemberment: Similar to typical life insurance, this option provides your heirs with a payout should you die during your trip.

TRAVEL IMMUNIZATION

- Consult a health care provider or visit a travel health clinic, preferably six weeks before you travel.
- Most vaccines given for travel are not free, check with your health insurance company to see if it covers the cost.

TO MOVE OR NOT TO MOVE CHECKLIST

Use this checklist to help you decide whether to remain living at home or to consider moving. Ideally, the senior will answer the questions, either in writing or in conversation with the family.

SAFETY

Is your home suitable and safe?

NOTES:

How difficult is it for you to manage the stairs in your home?

How willing or able are you to clean your home?

How willing or able are you to maintain the yard and outside of the home?

Do you have enough help available when necessary: e.g. during a short-term illness?

Are you at risk for falls? Does your home have good lighting, bathroom safety bars, handrails, and safe flooring?

Do you smoke? Do you have and maintain smoke detectors?

Do you have a hot water safety valve on hot water taps?

Do you have an emergency response system in case of illness or injury?

Do you have other emergency contact numbers by the phone?

FINANCES

Is the choice to stay in your home economically sound?

What minor and major repairs must you make in the next few years?

Would freeing up the cash in your home allow you to have a more enjoyable lifestyle?

Are taxes, insurance, utilities, and other costs affordable for you?

If not, do you have finances available for renovations or adaptations if they are necessary?

Could you get financial assistance for renovations or adaptations?

LOCATION

Is the location of your home suitable?

NOTES:

Is adequate transportation available for medical appointments, social activities, and visiting friends and family?

Are stores and other services within easy reach?

Is the neighbourhood safe and pleasing to you?

Do you value the relationships you have with your neighbours?

Do you have adequate access to friends, and social and church activities?

Is your own physical mobility or driving ability an issue?

SERVICES

Are necessary in-home support services available and/or affordable for you?

Do you need any of the following services? Can you find them and afford them?

- Household services (cleaning, yard work, minor repairs)
- Home-delivered meals, grocery delivery
- Visitors, companions, drivers, etc., volunteer or paid
- Access to adult day programs (if required)
- Personal care services
- Professional services (physiotherapy, nursing)

After completing the checklist and talking to your loved ones or other support, determine your answer to the following question:

Is the decision to stay at home in your best interest?

- Definitely yes
- Maybe
- Definitely not

SENIORS HOUSING TERMINOLOGY

A challenge for Albertans trying to navigate seniors' housing options is the multitude of terms used to categorize and describe seniors' housing.

As ASCHA (Alberta Seniors & Community Housing Association) states in their “Creating Common Terminology for Seniors Housing in Alberta” report:

“The various levels of services and supports offered are described in various ways, using words or phrases that may not be familiar outside of the sector itself. Terminology and labels are very specific to government programs, levels of care within the health system, and euphemistic language used by marketing experts. To further complicate the issue, the same living environment is labeled differently depending on the information source, or its geographic location. There is a long history of term inconsistency, and it is part of the reason why Alberta's seniors housing offerings appear so complex in comparison to other jurisdictions.”

Additionally, terminology used by Continuing Care changed with the introduction of the Continuing Care Act in early 2024, and new models of care, including private-pay long-term care options have developed in recent years.

In this edition of the Directory, we have categorized housing options as follows:

1. Accommodation only
2. Housing with Service or Care Options
3. Seniors Lodges
4. Long Term Care

We encourage you to ASK QUESTIONS of each housing provider to get the clarity you need. The Directory is just a starting point.

We will continue to work with senior-serving organizations to try to improve clarity and transparency— in the meantime, please read each listing to determine what best suits your needs (rather than only searching by category).

HOUSING TERMS

AFFORDABLE HOUSING: Housing in which rent is below market value.

APARTMENT: A rented dwelling situated above or below one or more other units (residential or non-residential). The “apartment” unit may share common hallways and access to the outside with other units. Apartments usually consist of a main living space, a small kitchen, a bathroom and may have one bedroom or two bedrooms, or no separate bedroom if it is a studio/bachelor apartment.

BARRIER FREE: Means that a building, suite, facility and a path of travel can be approached, entered, and used by persons with physical or sensory disabilities, including those in a wheelchair. (mobility accesible)

CONDOMINIUM: A form of property ownership where the purchaser buys a piece of property individually, and shares property ownership with other owners in the same condominium complex. There are governing rules, regulations and requirements. “Condo fees” are charged to cover building maintenance and other shared costs. Typically, a condominium is an apartment or townhouse.

CONTINUING CARE HOMES: Part of the Continuing Care services, these accommodations are licensed settings that receive public funding to provide residents with nursing, personal care, life enrichment activities and other support services. Continuing care homes are either operated by Alberta Health Services (AHS) or other contracted non-and for-profit providers. The amount and type of care provided to residents is based on their assessed needs. AHS determines access to continuing care home spaces and requires individuals to be assessed by a health professional to determine their health needs. Terminology for these changed in 2024 with the ongoing transformation of Continuing Care and the Alberta Continuing Care Act: Type A (formerly long term care, nursing homes or auxiliary hospitals), Type B (formerly Designated Supportive Living), Type C (publicly funded hospice settings).

DEMENTIA CARE / MEMORY CARE: These terms are used to describe a type of supportive living for individuals with dementia and Alzheimer’s. These secure suites may be publicly funded and accessed through AHS or accessed privately, directly through the facility operator (although there may be both private pay and AHS funded suites in the same facility). In addition to the typical services found in supportive living, such as meals and housekeeping, dementia care services generally include additional nursing supports and specialized recreation programming. Each housing operator may have a different service model.

INDEPENDENT LIVING: Refers to environments in which individuals are responsible for and capable of arranging any care and support services needed (i.e. functionally independent) – including Home Care or private support services.

LIFE LEASE: A contract between a resident and an organization which grants the resident the right to occupy a unit for the balance of his/her life. Financial requirements depend on the particular development - usually a deposit of 35%-100% of the suite value is required before moving in. All residents pay a monthly fee to cover operating costs. When less than the full value of the suite has been deposited, there is a monthly rental charge to finance the unpaid balance. Should you decide to move out, or in the event of your death, the amount of your original investment is refunded or returned to your estate. When purchasing a Life Lease suite, the agreement should be reviewed by an accountant or lawyer for the same reasons that a professional would advise on a real estate purchase.

MARKET VALUE: The valuation in a competitive open market (market rate value). “Below Market Value” is an amount that is below the going market rate.

RENT GEARED TO INCOME (RGI): A tenant’s rent, which includes heat, water and sewer expenses is based on income. Typically rent is calculated based on 30% of total income (based on the tenant’s previous year’s tax return), but variations do exist. Rent does not include electricity, phone, TV, or additional services such as parking. Eligible applicants must fall below the income threshold, which is set annually by the Government of Alberta.

ROW HOUSE OR TOWN HOUSE: Ground-oriented housing attached to two or more similar units so that the resulting row structure contains three or more units.

SENIORS LODGE: Seniors lodges typically offer single and double bed/sitting rooms, meals, housekeeping and other services, and recreational opportunities for seniors who are functionally independent, with or without the help of existing community-based services. Seniors Lodges may be operated by private for-profit or nonprofit organizations; however, the majority of lodges are managed by a housing management body through the Seniors’ Lodge Program administered by Alberta Seniors and Housing.

SUPPORTIVE / ASSISTED LIVING: In Alberta, these terms are used broadly and interchangeably, and neither are regulated which can result in inconsistent usage. Generally, it refers to accommodation in a home-like setting, where people can remain as independent as possible while they have access to accommodation and services that meet their changing needs. Settings can be operated by private for-profit, not-for-profit, or public operators. In addition to providing a place to live, services in supportive living accommodations may include meals, housekeeping, and social activities. Residents may also receive professional and personal support services through home care. Typically, supportive/assisted living residents pay a monthly accommodation charge to cover the costs of providing accommodations and services like meals, housekeeping and building maintenance.

DESIGNATED SUPPORTIVE LIVING
Designated Supportive Living (now called Continuing Care Type B) refers to residences operated in partnership with AHS (publicly funded) for those who are medically stable, need 24-hour personal care support, and occasional/scheduled professional care through the help of onsite Health Care Aides and a Licensed Practical Nurse. Health care services are provided on a scheduled basis but can be accessed as needed. DSL4D (now called Continuing Care Home Type B Secure Space) is a setting for those living with advanced dementia requiring a secure environment.

LONG TERM CARE

Long term care facilities are designed specifically for individuals with complex, unpredictable medical needs who require 24-hour onsite Registered Nurse assessment and/or treatment. Long term care supports those who have:

- Serious changes in health status requiring immediate health professional assessment;
- A need for medication management and other treatments;
- Conditions requiring the continued presence of a Registered Nurse and the consultative availability of rehabilitation or dietary professionals;
- Unpredictable or unstable behaviour that place the individual or others at risk; and/or
- Complex end of life care needs.

Publicly funded long term care in Alberta is now called Continuing Care Type A. Access requires assessment by an AHS Case Manager.

CARE ACRONYMS

HCA – Health Care Aide: provides direct care, personal assistance and support to patients who are ill, elderly or disabled. They assist patients with activities such as bathing, grooming, dressing, and toileting. They may help with feeding or exercise and in some settings help patients take their medications.

LPN – Licensed Practical nurse: a nursing professional who works in collaboration with other members of a healthcare team.

NP - Nurse Practitioners are registered nurses (RNs) with graduate degrees and advanced knowledge and skills. They are trained to assess, diagnose, treat, order diagnostic tests, prescribe medications, make referrals to specialists and manage overall care. Nurse practitioners often work closely with physicians and other health professions as part of a team. Some NPs work independently and manage their own clinics.

RN – Registered Nurse: a licensed nursing professional who provides and coordinates patient care.

CONTINUING CARE ACT

On April 1, 2024, the Continuing Care Act, regulations and standards came into effect, marking the beginning of a significant milestone in the ongoing transformation of Alberta's continuing care system.

Under the Continuing Care Act, 2 new regulations have been developed to provide the details necessary to regulate all continuing care services and settings (including continuing care homes, supportive living accommodation and home and community care).

The Continuing Care Health Service Standards establish the minimum standards in the provision of high quality, individualized health care, based on the assessed needs of each client and resident.

More information and resources are available at www.alberta.ca/continuing-care-legislation-and-standards.

AFFORDABLE/SUBSIDIZED SENIORS HOUSING

The Alberta Government offers two kinds of “seniors housing” for individuals 65 or over who are functionally independent, with or without the assistance of community-based services:

1. SENIORS LODGE PROGRAM:

Offers rooms, meals, housekeeping services and recreation. Lodge operators set their own monthly lodge rates, but each resident must be left with at least $342 in monthly disposable income. May be appropriate for those who do not require care in a specialized health care facility. Applicants must be 65 years of age or older. Exceptions may be made for applicants with special circumstances.

2. SENIORS SELF-CONTAINED HOUSING PROGRAM:

Apartment-style housing with your own kitchen and bathroom. There might be a common area to share with others. Applicants must be 65 years of age or older and functionally independent, with or without the assistance of community-based services. Rent is based on 30% of income; includes heat, water and sewer expenses, does not include electricity, phone, TV and any additional services such as parking.

HOUSING WITH SERVICE OR CARE OPTIONS

This list of housing options includes housing for older adults in which there are services or care options available. Services may be included in rent (as indicated) or as additional fee-for-service options or packages.

Some residences require that residents are functionally independent (often categorized as independent living) and offer services like weekly housekeeping and meals, others have more supports in place. Ask the individual housing provider about the options available and the cost for each.

If a residence with nursing care is required, look for availability of and LPN (licensed practical nurse) or HCA (health care aide) in the list of “Supports” provided in the listing or get assessed by AHS Continuing Care for a publicly funded placement.

Remember that even in residences where there may be no nursing or care options, Home Care through AHS (or private- pay care agencies) may be arranged by the resident if needed.

In the listings to follow, residences are listed first by area of the city (see Area Map on page 126) and then alphabetically by building name. Options in surrounding communities follow those in Edmonton. Rental prices and housing details are subject to change - always confirm details with the individual housing provider.

A couple in their late 60's who live in a multi-story building for seniors where they receive housekeeping services and one meal a day.

A woman in her 90's who requires assistance with her medications and personal care. Lives with other seniors in a residence with a 24/7 HCA.

AGEISM

refers to how we

- think (stereotypes)
- feel (prejudice)
- act (discrimination)

towards others or ourselves based on age.

Global Campaign
to combat ageism
#AWorld4AllAges
Decade of healthy ageing

AGEISM IS EVERYWHERE

1 in 2 people worldwide are ageist against older people and in Europe there is more ageism against younger than older people.

AGEISM IS HARMFUL

Ageism has far-reaching impacts on all aspects of people's health, and takes a heavy economic toll on individuals and society.

AGEISM CAN BE COMBATTED

Policy and law can protect human rights and address age discrimination and inequality, educational activities can transmit knowledge and skills and enhance empathy, intergenerational interventions can connect people of different generations.

SENIORS LODGES: EDMONTON

Seniors lodges typically offer single and double bedroom/sitting rooms, meals, housekeeping, recreational opportunities and other services for seniors who are functionally independent, with or without the help of home and community care.

Seniors lodges may be operated by private or not-for-profit organizations, however the majority of lodges are managed by a housing management body through the Seniors' Lodge program administered by Alberta Seniors and Housing (see in Housing Resources: Affordable/Subsidized Housing Page 124).

Lodges are listed first by area of city (see Area Map page 126) and then alphabetically by building name. Listings in surrounding communities follow those in Edmonton.

*Rental prices are subject to change - always confirm details with management.

ALBERTA CONTINUING CARE

Continuing Care is made up of three main levels: Home Care, Type B care (formerly Designated Supportive Living - DSL) and Type A care (formerly Long Term Care). To get started, you need an AHS Case Manager. See also Health Services: Continuing Care Pg 52

	Home Care	Type B (formerly DSL)	Type A (formerly Long-Term Care)
What is it?	Healthcare services to help people remain well, safe and independent in their home or congregate living setting (i.e. a lodge) for as long as possible	Provides a higher level of personal care supports onsite while promoting residents independence to “age in place” A Licensed Practical Nurse is on site 24/7 for assessment and/or treatments.	Designed specifically for individuals with complex, unpredictable medical needs who require 24 hour onsite Registered Nurse assessment and/or treatment
Who is it for?	Albertans with a valid healthcare card, as long as their needs can be met safely in their place of residence.	Individuals who have increased care needs and require access to 24 hour monitoring and support	Individuals who have highly complex and unpredictable health needs whose care cannot be safely provided in their own home or in a Type B care home.
Who provides care?	Home care providers, the client and family/ caregivers are all active partners of the care team	Health Care Aides and one Licensed Practical Nurse are onsite 24-hours a day; scheduled allied health support is available if required.	Registered Nurses, Licensed Practical Nurses, Health Care Aides, and other healthcare professionals depending on your needs

Source: www.albertahealthservices.ca What is Continuing Care?

CONTINUING CARE HOME TYPE B

Formerly Designated Supportive Living (DSL)

Type B continuing care living services are provided by Alberta Health Services and are available once you or your loved one have contacted and been assessed by a Case Manager. Type B continuing care homes are for people with various levels of medical needs who are unable to remain safely in supportive living accommodations or in their homes.

Residents of Type B continuing care homes receive:

- accommodation
- meals
- access to 24-hour on-site scheduled and unscheduled personal care and support services from health care aides and/or licensed practical nurses

Type B Secure Space, formerly Designated Supportive Living 4 – Dementia (DSL4D), is an environment which provides a purposeful home-like design with small groupings of private bedrooms and associated spaces with security features (i.e., secured spaces) available for those living with advanced dementia requiring a secure environment.

Type B Continuing Care Home spaces are contracted by Alberta Health Services (AHS) at many locations within and around Edmonton. Clients must be assessed by an AHS Case Manager to be deemed appropriate for this level of care. Assessments are coordinated through Continuing Care Access: 780-496-1300.

A list of current options will be provided to you once assessed by an AHS Case Manager.

You can also search the Continuing Care Facility Directory: www.albertahealthservices.ca/cc/page15328.aspx#ccfd

Once assessed, clients may express their preferences of site locations. Depending on urgency of relocation, preferences may or may not be able to be accommodated.

Accommodation Charges:

Residents are responsible for the cost of accommodation or rent in Type B Continuing Care Homes, as well as for any additional care or support services requested by the resident that are not part of the care plan completed by the Alberta Health Services case manager.

Accommodation fees typically cover rent, meals, housekeeping, linen and towels change, building amenities and recreation programming. Individuals provide or pay for room furnishings, medication, medical and surgical supplies for chronic wounds, personal medical equipment and incontinence products (costs may be shared with Alberta Aids to Daily Living depending on finances), cable, phone and internet, personal laundry, hair salon fees, toiletries and outings.

LONG TERM CARE

Long term care facilities are designed specifically for individuals with complex, unpredictable medical needs who require 24-hour onsite Registered Nurse assessment and/or treatment.

Publicly funded long term care in Alberta is now called Continuing Care Type A (formerly long-term care, nursing homes or auxiliary hospitals). Access requires assessment by an Alberta Health Services (AHS) Case Manager.

- Health care aides are onsite 24 hours a day to provide support and personal care according to your care plan
- Registered nurses onsite to support care needs.
- Depending on the needs of the resident, other healthcare professionals such as occupational therapist, pharmacist, recreational therapist, etc.) are available
- Medical care is provided by either the resident's physician/nurse practitioner or a site designated physician/nurse practitioner that visits the site regularly.

Accommodation charges:

The maximum resident accommodation charge in continuing care homes is set by the Alberta government. All continuing care homes provide 24-hour publicly funded health and personal care support on-site.

Note: There are also now some private pay long term care options (listings included in Housing with Care or Service Options) in which clients assume full responsibility for the care and accommodation portions of the costs associated with care provision. Eligibility criteria for these options is directly defined by each independent provider.

SUPPORTIVE LIVING INFORMATION CHECKLIST

Sage has created a checklist to help you investigate residential facilities that may provide the accommodation and services you need. The checklist is also available at www.mysage.ca/help/housing or by request at Sage.

We've included key areas and issues important for a successful relocation. With several facility options in the community, collecting and comparing information can be overwhelming. This checklist will help you gather all the necessary details.

To simplify your search, we suggest you:

1. Choose a location with good access to services, amenities, and family support.
2. Identify any essential services or activities (ex. place of worship, gardening, library).
3. Use the checklist to formulate questions to avoid future issues after moving in.
4. Contact the buildings of interest to schedule tours of the facilities and suites.
5. During tours, ask the manager any questions relevant to your situation—there's no need to cover everything.
6. Use a separate checklist for each building.
7. After touring, compare your completed checklists.
8. Eliminate facilities that don't meet your criteria.
9. Make an informed decision for your new home.

LIST OF SENIORS' HOUSING WHERE RENT IS GEARED TO INCOME

Rent geared to income (RGI) is when rental rates, subsidized by the provincial government, are set to a percentage of your gross monthly family income (usually 30%). RGI apartment sizes are typically bachelor and one bedroom. See individual housing listings for more details.
